Wolbert, D. D. Hull, Jr., George Ingles, and R. M. Calfes; Misses Lillian Langley and Nellie Jordan, and Messrs, O. P. Jordan and J. H. Scales.

The book has been handsomely printed by Smith Brothers, of the News-Recorder, of this town, and is now in the binder's hands. Those who have examined it pronounce it invaluable to the binder's hands. Those who have examined it pronounce it invaluable to the Virginia lawyers and judges, and a large number of copies have been sold in advance. There will be five or six volumes in all. A Pretty Wedding in King William County Wednesday.

KING WILLIAM COURTHOUSE, VA. April 22.-(Special.)-A very pretty marage was solemnized here yesterday afon in St. James church, the coneting parties being Miss Lucy Landon, oldest daughter of J. in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. W. C. Noland, of Richmond. The attendants were Messrs. Eugene B. Cooke and Frank Noland, and Misses Lina G. Gregory and Mary M. Cooke, while Miss Edmonia C. Cooke acted as the naid of honor.

The church had been tastefully dressed with flowers by kind friends, and presented a very pleasing effect.

The bride is a stately, handsome brunette, and a universal favorite with all who know her. The groom is a son of the late Colonel C. St. George Noland, of Hanover, and is a prominent young citizen and farmer in his community.

The presents—some from distant States—were numerous and handsome, and attested to the had esteem in which the young couple is held.

Prior to the marriage a handsome wedding breakfast was served at "Foxleigh,"

Mr. and Mrs. Noland left immediately

FLOYD, VA., April 22.-(Special.)-Atter holding a four days' session, Judge Blair closed his court here yesterday afternoon. Only two jury cases were tried, but a large number of chancery orders were entered. Judge Blair's next court will be the Craig court.

S. & W. Scott have started their new roller-mill, and it is turning out first-class flour. This mill is equipped with all the latest improvements, and has a capacity of fifty barrels of flour per day. The large mill-house, is completely filled with machinery, from bottom to top, and it all works and runs in perfect order. The all works and runs in perfect of the first mill was furnished by August Hine, of Silver Creek, N. Y., and Mr. A. H. Landon, of New York, placed and adjusted the machinery Mr. N. L. Verdenborg, of North Bristol, Ohio, came on a few days ago to start the mill and instruct the Messrs. Scott's miller in making flour by the roller process.

The Dolly Madison Spoons.

Caltimore Sun.)
One of the new Juurnalism newspapers in New York recently announced that Mrs. Cleveland had melted the spoons in the White House which had been used by Dolly Madison, and had had the silver made into prettier spoons. There was a long and interesting story about it. The long and interesting story about it. The silversmith had offered their weight in gold for the spoons, but Mrs. Cleveland rejected the offer, sent the spoons to the mint, so the story ran, had them melted into ingots, and then required of the silversmith an affidavit that the same silve was put into the new spoons. This story was promptly denied at the White House and in proof of the denial it is declared the Dolly Madison spoons are still there But the melting story is going the round of the press just the same. It is sur-prising how circumstantial, interesting, and apparently truthful the accomplished new journalist can be.

Horrid Torture.

This is often felt in every joint and muscle of the body by turns, by ecople who, experiencing the earliest twinges of rheumatism, neglect to arrest the malady, as they may easily do, with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a profess onally authenticated remedy for the agonicing complaint. Recallect that rheumat sm unchecked often lasts a lifetime, or abrupily terminates it when the malady attacks the heart. The Bitters also remedies chills and fever, dyspepsia, and liver complaint.
